Coast Recreation, Inc. Recognized as 2005 Rep of the Year

Landscape Structures Inc. acknowledges firm's accomplishments

Minneapolis, Minn. (March 24, 2006) – Coast Recreation, Inc., of Costa Mesa, Calif., has been named 2005 Rep of the Year by Landscape Structures Inc., the nation's premier manufacturer of commercial playground and skatepark equipment. Landscape Structures presented the award to Coast Recreation's owner, Tim Hodges, during the company's annual sales meeting in Minneapolis, Minn.

The award recognized Coast Recreation as a premier and model organization, for their service and dedication to the customer and their outstanding sales achievements. Coast Recreation is one of 44 independent sales organizations representing Landscape Structures worldwide.

Coast Recreation has represented Landscape Structures playground equipment since 1993, and the company's Skatewave™ modular skatepark equipment since 2001. Coast Recreation currently employs eight individuals, and represents a portion of Southern California, primarily Orange County and San Diego.
